Carol Mellor spoke to us about Sunnybrae Pony Club, the establishment and turmoil of relocating due to the Superway extension. Carol is a life member of Sunnybrae pony club and the metropolitan zone pony clubs, she has served on the committee in various positions for over 20 years and oversaw a major transition when the club relocated from Regency Park to dry creek in 2011.
Carol is also on the organising committee of the Adelaide Equestrian Festival which is a world class 5 star eventing competition that happens in April each year in Victoria park.
Joining Carol was Judy Wortley, the club's vice president.
