Last week Jack Pappin gave a fascinating recount of his journey into Egypt, including Aswan, Luxor and Cairo. Highlights included staying at The Old Cataract Hotel where Agatha Christie wrote “Death on the Nile” and visiting the Valley of the Kings near Luxor. The journey included a boat trip along the Nile and finished in Cairo. The Egyptian Museum houses Pharaoh Tutankhamun's treasure, including its iconic gold burial mask, widely considered one of the best-known works of art in the world and a prominent symbol of ancient Egypt.

Another highlight of the week was the Friday “Away Walk” which started at the Old Lion Hotel in North Adelaide. Charter President Ernie Nagy was a special guest, and there was a good turnout for the walk and cake and coffee afterwards. Thanks to John Rohde for the photos.

Thanks also for Angela and her angels who helped deliver some furniture to a needy family
