Club Leaders Learning Seminar (District Assembly) - Sunday 31 May,

Regency Park Changeover Dinner on 7th July at the Caledonian Hotel

Our regular Friday Morning walks leave from outside the Caledonian Hotel at 7.45am and follow on afterwards with cake and coffee at Pellegrini's Café. A casual way to start a Friday morning.

Corolla Capers:

Last week we listened to an inspiring speaker, Shamasia Ekhlasi a recent Canberra Youth Leadership attendee. She related her story in an emotional and impactful way. Despite the Taliban not allowing schooling for girls in her native Afghanistan, she was determined to continue her education. Her family migrated to Australia, and she has become proficient in English and has exceled at her studies at Thebarton Senior College.

We were delighted to hear of the profound impact that the Leadership course had on herself-confidence and future direction. I'm sure that we will see Shamasia in a leadership role in the future.

We also welcomed Angela's nephew Jack, who works in an educational role supporting at-risk youth

On Friday, Jack, Mark C and Les began the installation of the Trevor Berry Memorial Sculpture, with the base poured at Ridley Grove Community Garden.
