Did you spot Steven Knight's contribution to Will King's column in this week's Sunday Mail about a mysterious object found on Corolla Capers?

4. OUTBACK ODDITY
On a recent Outback odyssey STEVEN KNIGHT found this unusual object in a dry creek bed on Mooloolloo Station in the Flinders Ranges. Coincidently, that night, after a huge downpour, the creek became a raging river. Any clues what it is? The trip is Corolla Capers – a project of the Rotary Club of Regency Park. Entrants must drive an old rear-wheel-drive Corolla or a support vehicle. The hardy Corollas go where many 4WDs may hesitate. Money raised goes to local and international charities. This year funds were donated to the Green Pastures Hospital in Nepal. KEN ADAMS, a 93-year-old veteran of 22 trips, this year caught up with Outback legends GORDON and LYN LITCHFIELD from Wilpoorinna Station, longtime supporters of the event.

5. DOGGIE DAYCARE
ALAN POLKINGHORNE spotted these dogs waiting for their masters by a hydrant. "Hope they are fireman-friendly if there is a fire," he quipped. Amusingly, the image on his email signature is of a cute pup.

QUAD CAFFEINE

A recent item with a photo showing a sign with the word "COFFEE" four times had GLEN ANDERSON thinking outside the square. "I read it as saying, 'This way for [four] coffee'," he says.

Last week's meeting at Ridley Grove Community Garden was a Zorba the Greek themed night – with soups, bread, meat balls, baklava, music and dancing, and more. We also packed several emergency shelter bags for people in need. A great time had by all, including Adelaide Central club members and other guests.
